

Family Group Decision Making Scotland International Conference

Join us to celebrate 20 years of Family Group Decision Making in Scotland and help us to shape the future

Wednesday 3rd October 2018, Edinburgh

With Maree Todd MSP, Minister for Children and Young People

Book your place at

<http://www.usherhall.co.uk/whats-on/family-group-decision-making-international-conference>

Where: Conference Centre, Hearts Football Club, Tynecastle, Edinburgh

Time: 9am for 9:30am finishing at 4:30pm

Cost: £100 (including lunch and refreshments)

Twitter: #FGDMScotland

Outline of the Day

Presentations

Lisa Merkel-Holgan (USA), Hedda van Lieshout (Netherlands), Kate Morris (UK) and Peter Marsh (UK) will share their research, unique perspective and extensive knowledge of Family Group Decision Making

Café-style conversations

Including; Family Group Decision Making within Health & Social Care, Lifelong Links for young people in the care system, family meetings with vulnerable babies

Hear from Scotland's leaders about their support for Family Group Decision Making

Maree Todd MSP

Minister for Children and Young People

Bruce Adamson

Children & Young People's Commissioner in Scotland

For more information on Family Group Decision Making

<https://www.children1st.org.uk/what-we-do/how-we-help/supporting-children-and-families/family-group-decision-making/>

To book a place contact the Usher Hall in Edinburgh : www.usherhall.co.uk and quote FGDM345

To organise an information stand please contact

Yvonne Lyle, Business Support

yvonne.lyle@edinburgh.gov.uk +44 131 2212210

The event is being organised by Scotland's National Steering Group for Family Group Decision Making