BRIGHTON & HOVE

Brighton is more than the seaside, more than the city and the mix is more than double the fun. Fashionable, funky and loaded with style, Brighton & Hove has everything you could want from a trip to Britain - a royal palace, elegant Regency architecture, museums with more, laid-back beach life and superb shopping – all this on the south coast of England, just 49 minutes from central London.

Culture and heritage

There are museums and galleries galore, special events throughout the year from car rallies to carnivals, and England's largest arts festival in May.

Walking around Brighton, 400 years of history and style unfold before you. The Royal Pavilion is the magnificent palace created by King George IV, and is an eclectic mix of styles that has to be seen to be believed.

Attractions

Stroll along the Victorian Pier and the beachfront, where stylish bars and cafés spill out onto the curved paving, jostling for space with surfer shops, giant sculptures, buskers, fresh fish and artists' studios.

Food and drink

Brighton's diversity extends to its choice of restaurants. With more than 400 to choose from you can eat your way around the world. Along the beachfront between the two Piers there are several restaurants and cafés – perfect for people-watching. You'll certainly be spoilt for choice when it comes to food in Brighton, but don't miss the fantastic fish and chips!

Shopping

Brighton truly is a shopper's paradise. Explore the intricate maze of twisting alleyways and hidden squares in the 17th century Brighton Laines. The bustling criss-cross streets of the North Laine make a great hunting ground for unique retro, vintage and kitsch finds. And bargain hunters will love the weekend markets and Brighton Marina for discount shopping at factory outlet shops.
